

Author name: Name suppressed

Date of submission: Friday, 23 February 2024

Your submission for this review:

There needs to be greater focus on basic issues like rubbish collection, grass cutting and potholed roads rather than fancy arts and making of brochures. There also needs to be better accountability and responsible for spending of ratepayers money. The Shoalhaven Council embarked on a multi million frolic to build a waste treatment plant that was never going to work. SCC has more media and admin folks than road repair crews.