

Author name: Name suppressed

Date of submission: Thursday, 29 May 2025

Your submission for this review:

Hi, Can you try not squeezing customers with more money especially with the fact that there is record rainfalls and with inflation so high how do you expect customers to pay for more. With Sydney waters having a monopoly for supplying water, I assume customers will have no choice but to succumb to these high prices for basic essentials. Regards, An average earning customer with family and kids