

Author name: Name suppressed

Date of submission: Monday, 29 September 2025

Your submission for this review:

This is not a good outcome for me or other ferry users. These ferries should become part of the opal network as this has a big impact. They are also already very expensive making me and others have to question if we can travel places but now it is getting worse. The prices should not increase as they are already far more expensive than opal options and dont have concession options.