

Author name: Name suppressed

Date of submission: Tuesday, 5 November 2024

Your submission for this review:

I feel that even though there is a cost of living issue at the moment, the priority should be to ensure there are sufficient houses for people to live in. My main concern would be that I wouldn't want my water service to be disrupted or reduced in any way, however if this is not a factor, I think an increase in cost to cover any new works has to be passed on to consumers to ensure everyone is provided for.