

Author name: Name suppressed

Date of submission: Tuesday, 5 November 2024

Your submission for this review:

I strongly disagree with this proposal! The price increase is insane! The Sydney water price is incredibly higher than cities in other countries already. the ordinary household is struggling to pay their bills including water bill. Inflation is just around 2.8%, the proposed increase is 6 times higher, which doesnt make sense. You need to manage to control your cost and possibly require subsidies from Government, not passing all costs to customer.