

Author name: Name suppressed

Date of submission: Tuesday, 5 November 2024

Your submission for this review:

Obviously I would prefer you didn't raise prices. However, if you do have to, and it's to build infrastructure out West, then those residents should pay - we've already paid a premium for our housing and infrastructure, so ideally I don't want to subsidise other areas and general under investment from decades of under funding.