

Author name: Name suppressed

Date of submission: Friday, 8 November 2024

Your submission for this review:

I support the goals of upgrading and future-proofing our water network but increasing consumer bills should be a measure of last resort. When bills do need to be increased they should be as minimal as possible. Sydney Water should seek a greater share of funding from the NSW Government, who in turn should refocus their spending priorities.