

Author name: P. Seale

Date of submission: Wednesday, July 15, 2015

Submission: The City of Sydney Council was extended a few years ago to a size which is appropriate for effective management and good representation by local council members.

The proposed expansion will be far too big for integrated approaches to management because the population will be too large and very diverse.