

Author name: P. Upham

Date of submission: Wednesday, July 29, 2015

Submission: I write to oppose any recommendation or decision to merge City of Sydney council with any other councils in NSW. City of Sydney stands alone on its own. The areas residents', workers and visitors will not be best served by any merger. City of Sydney already has a positive track record of service and achievement and any attempt to make the council larger and more cumbersome will hinder its service delivery.