

Author name: R. Banks

Date of submission: Saturday, 2 November 2024

Your submission for this review:

allowing hunter water to increase prices is a mistake. Why should they be allowed to increase prices more than the amount that wages have been allowed to increase. If hunter water had been run properly and money be put back into the system that has been paid by developers and water rates etc they would not be looking for a cash grab to repair pipes that should be maintained as a routine.