

Author name: R. Sager

Date of submission: Monday, 2 March 2015

Submission: For the Blue Mountains to have a huge rate rise is deeply unfair. I am retired and living in the lower Blue Mountains and the only thing we get in our village is rubbish pickup. At well over $2500 a year currently this latest rate rise amounts to robbery. The BMCC can't manage [REDACTED] now and I am deadly against granting them a rate raise this time round.