

Author name: S. Colwell

Date of submission: Tuesday, 19 November 2024

Your submission for this review:

The prices you are charging our farmers for water are usurious, unjust and disconnected from commercial reality. Maybe the penny will drop when we are importing milk and other basic foodstuffs because too many of our farmers have been driven off the land as a result of not being able to pay them.