

Author name: S. Harrison

Date of submission: Monday, February 22, 2016

Submission: Not happy with council's intention to increase rates, don't mind a moderate increase.
Council should listen to rate payers concerns , rather than going through the motions
Then apply for maximum increases
Council should look within to cut spending as all companies do