

Author name: S. Heath

Date of submission: 04 July 2015

Submission: How merging the financially stable or even robust, City of Sydney, with other locales is beyond me. The city is well run, provides exemplary levels of services and even carries out the roles which should be paid for and managed by the state government but long since abandoned.

The city is financial, caring, efficient, socially aware, responsible and well led.

Your focus should be on the inept and corrupted.