

Author name: W. Southwell

Date of submission: Tuesday, 5 November 2024

Your submission for this review:

It would be fairer to increase water charges more and the fixed charges less. This gives customers more incentive and control over their bill by controlling their usage. If this results in reduced demand for water it makes for a more sustainable water supply system, particularly in dry periods.