

Author name: W. Upward

Date of submission: Wednesday, 4 December 2024

Your submission for this review:

These price increases are exorbitant no one can factor these prices into their forward plans With the price of electricity and these water charges increasing this will have huge impact on the use of irrigation and so on food production