

Author name: a. thomson

Date of submission: Friday, 1 October 2021

Your submission for this review:

The Central coast has no identified need for a desalination plant which is what is driving a proposed increase in water rates. The appointed administrator has no mandate to make these decisions and I view the entire process as undemocratic and suspect [REDACTED] with developers to open up our water catchment areas for no good reason. Sincerely Andrew Thomson Resident of Central Coast living in a water catchment area with no democratic right to have as say in such decisions.