

Author name: p. mcbride

Date of submission: Tuesday, 9 May 2017

Submission: I object strenuously to the proposed sewerage plant in piggabeen NSW. The impact on the area cannot be underestimated (unsightliness, smell, property values and the possibility of flood in the area) Being a resident I have noticed that the site is prone to flooding at the slightest hint of rainfall. Surely common sense should prevail in this instance.