

Author name: p. morson

Date of submission: Thursday, 5 March 2015

Submission: Hello, the rates increase is a large amount for most households, I live at Blackheath and have no problems with an increase AS LONG AS they spend it wisely, I look around and see heritage buildings falling down, roads that are in urgent need of repair, NO greenwaste in a green belt like the mountains, then I see a bike track being built for cyclists who pay nothing to use the roads, increase yes but spent it wisely