Submission: I'm totally opposed to forced amalgamations and in the case of the City of Sydney Council's submission it has demonstrated it has met Fit for the Future criteria, if you care to look further than consider the results in Queensland, Melbourne & Auckland. At great cost these experiments may be reversed and any perceived gains which haven't eventuated in any case add to the total waste of money. This whole exercise demonstrates the lengths taken to undermine Clover Moore and any independent voice as was the intent of the Get Clover Law brought about by the elephant hunter orchestrated by Macquarie St.
