

Author name: C. Uhrig

Date of submission: Monday, 10 October 2022

Your submission for this review:

Councils are already making stories up to justify rate increases and SRVs. Promises are made and there is no follow up whether any of what the application offered is being executed. Removing the rate peg altogether would expose residents to undue financial stress without a level of control.