

Author name: Name suppressed

Date of submission: Thursday, 26 October 2023

Your submission for this review:

The Southern Highlands Teachers Association makes note of the lack of any public preschools within our region. There is a great need for increased number of care services to ensure increased participation in the workforce for those who need and/ or want it, including teachers, and to provide high quality care for the children of the Southern Highlands, NSW. Our area is disadvantaged as a result. Access to public care services is also virtually non-existent.