

Author name: B. WATSON-WILL

Date of submission: Friday, 3 September 2021

Your submission for this review:

We are still waiting for electricity costs to be reduced. The NSW Government should look to reducing the licensing costs to the providers, and those costs passed on the consumers, otherwise, these promises of lower consumer costs will be taken as further lies.