OUR COMMITMENT TO ABORIGINAL AND TORRES STRAIT ISLANDER RESIDENTS

Fairfield City Council recognises the customs and traditions of Aboriginal peoples, their spiritual relationship with the land and the right of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Australians to live according to their own beliefs, values and customs. The vital importance of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people's contribution to strengthening and enriching the heritage of all Australia is acknowledged.

Fairfield City Council acknowledges the Cabrogal people as the traditional custodians of the Fairfield City local government area and pays its respect to the Elders both past and present. The Cabrogal clan takes its name from the 'cobra grub' a staple food for the clan, which is found in local creeks in the area.

Fairfield City Council signed a Local Government Commitment that both acknowledged and recognised Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people as the first peoples of Australia. It also acknowledged their loss and grief caused by alienation from traditional lands, loss of lives and freedom, and the forced removal of children.

The signing of this significant agreement took place during NAIDOC Week on 5 July 2000 where Fairfield City Council dedicated itself to developing a partnership approach with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples as part of addressing the needs of whole communities.

MAYORAL & CITY MANAGER FOREWORD

Welcome to the Fairfield City Plan 2012-2022 (City Plan) which contains the Community's Vision, Priorities and Outcomes for Fairfield City over the next 10 years. We would like to thank all those residents who participated and generously shared their thoughts and hopes about the future they want for Fairfield City.

It is important to stress that this Fairfield City Plan 2012-2022 is not the Council's plan. Rather, it belongs to all the residents of the Fairfield City local government area as it sets out 'what they as a community want to see happen in their City over the coming decade'. It reflects the goals and priorities they want for the future of our City.

Fairfield City Council has a special role to play in the development of this Community Strategic Plan in that it is responsible for 'putting it together' on behalf of the community. It is not the Council's sole responsibility to deliver on all the community outcomes identified in this plan it is the responsibility of all levels of government (Federal, State and Local), organisations, institutions, agencies as well as every resident. We all have an important role to play in delivering the community outcomes identified in this plan.

In the development of this City Plan a review of the priorities and goals in the original Fairfield City Plan 2010-2020 was undertaken by the community and they also looked at the progress made by all stakeholders in its implementation. The 2012 End-of-Term Report highlights the achievements and progress that has been made. We encourage you to have a look at this report to see what has been delivered by all stakeholders within the Fairfield City local government area.

INTEGRATED PLANNING AND REPORTING (IPR) FRAMEWORK

IPR FRAMEWORK AT A GLANCE

The Local Government Integrated Planning and Reporting (IPR) Framework aims to ensure a more sustainable Local Government sector.

All NSW Councils are now required to develop a Community Strategic Plan (10 years) along with a Delivery Program (4 years) and Operational Plan (1 year). These documents are informed by a Resourcing Strategy (10 years) that is made up of a Long Term Financial Plan, Asset Management Strategy and Workforce Management Plan.

In order to achieve the integration envisaged by the IPR Framework, there is an alignment between the Fairfield City Plan, Resourcing Strategy, Delivery Program and the Operational Plan. This alignment is formed through the five themes identified by the community in the Fairfield City Plan:

Theme 1 - Community Wellbeing

Theme 2 - Places and Infrastructure

Theme 3 - Environmental Sustainability

Theme 4 - Local Economy and Employment

Theme 5 - Good Governance and Leadership

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

The IPR Framework aims to improve Council's long term community, financial and asset planning. This approach acknowledges Local Government's unique position as the only agency with an interest in all aspects of Fairfield City. It formalises the role of Council as the key advocate for the community in relation to all issues.

Council is required to prepare and implement a Community Engagement Strategy to assist in the review and development of the Fairfield City Plan - Community Strategic Plan. The Community Engagement Strategy outlines the principles, guidelines and actions Council will undertake in order to ensure that the community's long term aspirations and priorities for the City are defined in the Fairfield City Plan.

This Strategy requires Council to consider the levels of community engagement they should undertake. These levels are:

- Inform to provide the public with balanced and objective information to help them understand a problem, alternatives, opportunities and/or solutions.
- Consult to obtain public feedback on alternatives and/or decisions.
- Involved to work directly with the public throughout the process to ensure that public concerns and aspirations are consistently understood and considered.
- Collaborate to partner with the public in each aspect of the decision including the development of alternatives and identification of the preferred solution.

Fairfield City Council adopted the 2012 Community Engagement Strategy which embraced a range of engagement methods to ensure that our residents and key stakeholders are heard and involved in the ongoing delivery and monitoring of the Fairfield City Plan.

As identified in the 2012 Community Engagement Strategy, Council undertook a comprehensive consultation in 2010, to inform the Fairfield City Plan 2010-2020. This involved surveys (both residents and businesses), a series of focus groups with residents, government departments, community organisations, schools and youth representatives, a web feedback form and youth event. 1775 residents took the opportunity to have a say on what they felt was important to the community and where they believe Fairfield City should be heading.

The IPR Framework usually requires the Fairfield City Plan to be reviewed every four years. However, due to the introduction of the Legislation, this time, the review is required in a two year timeframe. Due to the 2010 comprehensive consultations occurring with community members, the 2012 Community Engagement Strategy undertook a number of focus groups and on-line surveys as the main ways of engaging with the community to re-affirm that these were still their aspirations and priorities for the future.

The 2012 Community Engagement Strategy reviewed and validated the identified Vision, Themes and Goals ensuring community concerns and aspirations for the future of Fairfield City are re-affirmed and contained in the Fairfield City Plan 2012-2022.

OUR STORY

OUR LOCATION

Our City is located in Sydney's south western suburbs, about 32 kilometres from the Sydney GPO.

Our City is bounded by Blacktown, Holroyd and Parramatta cities in the north, Bankstown City in the east, Liverpool City in the south and Penrith City in the west.

OUR SUBURBS

Our City includes 27 suburbs: Abbotsbury, Bonnyrigg, Bonnyrigg Heights, Bossley Park, Cabramatta, Cabramatta West, Canley Heights, Canley Vale, Carramar, Cecil Park (part), Edensor Park, Fairfield, Fairfield East, Fairfield Heights, Fairfield West, Greenfield Park, Horsley Park, Lansvale, Mount Pritchard (part), Old Guildford, Prairiewood, Smithfield (part), St Johns Park, Villawood (part), Wakeley, Wetherill Park and Yennora.

FAIRFIELD'S NAME

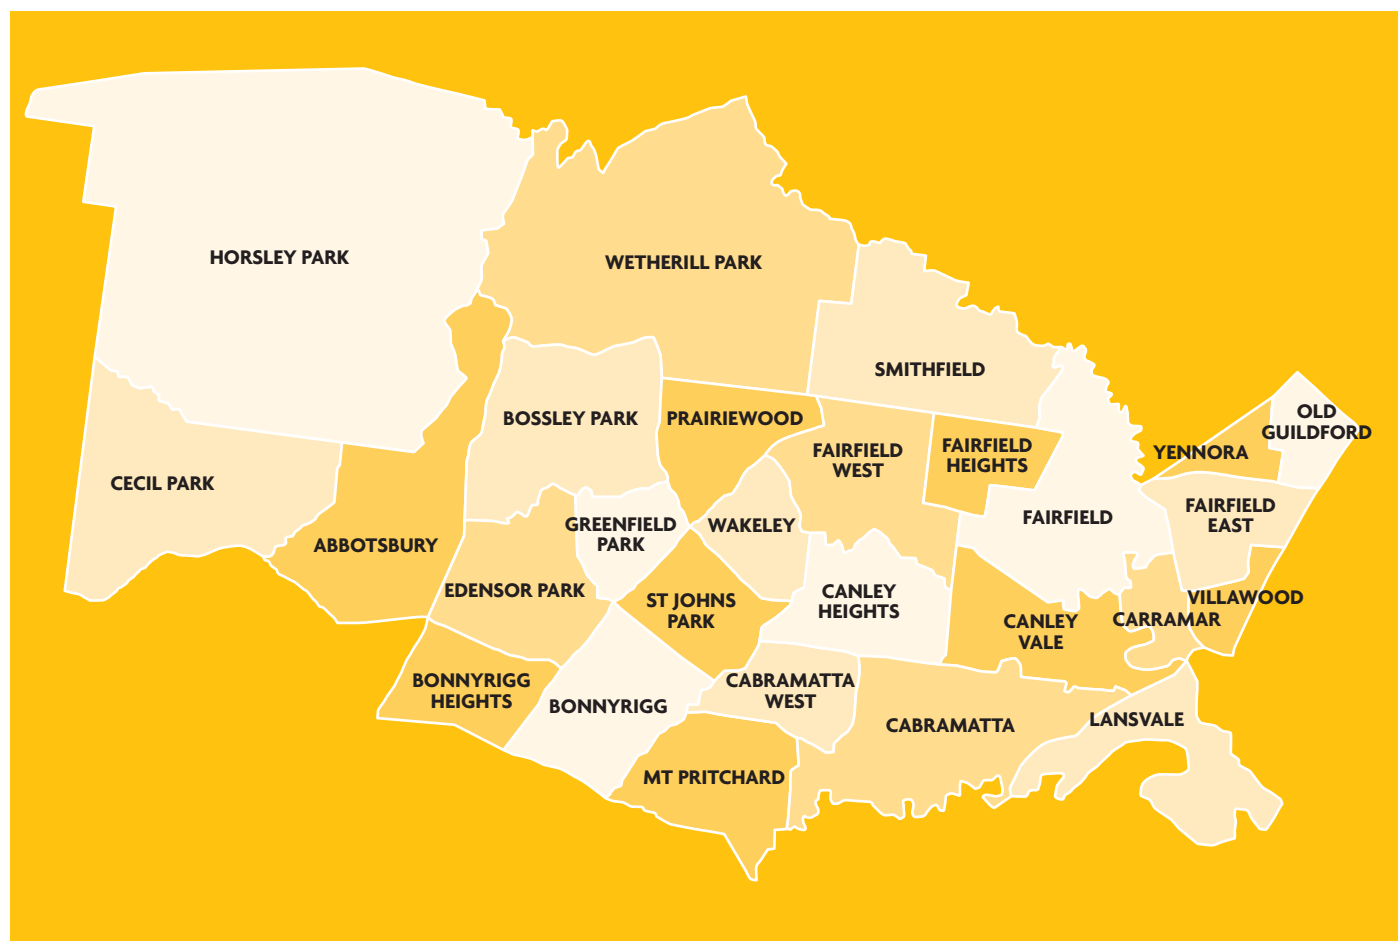

Fairfield is named after the family estate of John Horsley (an original land owner) in Somerset, United Kingdom.

LAND USE

Our City is predominantly residential, with substantial industrial and commercial areas, and some rural residential areas in the west. Major commercial centres are located at Fairfield and Cabramatta. The City encompasses a total land area of approximately 102.5 square kilometres.

THE TERRAIN

Our City's terrain is mainly flat with the land to the south being a drainage basin for an extensive network of creeks flowing south-east into the Georges River and ultimately Botany Bay, whilst to the west and north we have a ridge circling from Prospect to Cecil Park which in places rises to more than 100 metres.

INDIGENOUS BACKGROUND

For more than 30,000 years the land of our City has been home to Aboriginal people from the Cabrogal clan of the Darug Peoples. These ‘first people of the land’ hunted and gathered burraga (bandicoots), numbats, koalas, wallabies, burru (grey kangaroo), potoroos and wombats across the lands and fished for flathead, mullet, turtle, mussels, oysters, yabbies, crabs, prawns and cobra worm in the local rivers and creeks. The arrival of the First Fleet in 1788 heralded major changes in how our landscape was utilised.

SETTLEMENT HISTORY

Europeans first arrived on our lands in 1791 but had difficulty breaking it in due to the area’s tough geography. The area was often described by these early settlers as ‘bad country’ that ‘frequently overflowed’. It was during this time our area was given the new name of ‘Fairfield’ by one of the largest land owners, John Horsley, in honour of his family connection to the Fairfield Manor in Somerset, England.

The construction of the railway between the townships of Parramatta and Liverpool in 1856 saw our area’s fortunes change. As we had the only intermediate station on this line, orchards, farms, tanneries, sawmills and houses began to sprout up across the land. By 1900 we had 2,500 people living in our area. Our journey towards city-hood had begun!

By 1888 our area was gazetted as the Municipality of Smithfield and Fairfield and continued to see our population rapidly expand. By the early years of the twentieth century we had become a typical country town with paddocks behind the main street with timber mills and tanneries being our main industries. In 1920, we were renamed the Municipality of Fairfield and in 1948 with a population of over 27,000 we were amalgamated with the Cabramatta-Canley Vale Council. By May 1979 we were proclaimed the City of Fairfield.

Rapid population growth following the end of the Second World War saw our rural outlook turn into a predominantly urban one. Many ex-service men and new European migrants settled in our newly developed suburbs. Large scale Housing Commission developments in the 1950s swelled our population to 38,000. By 1979 we had become one of the largest local government areas in New South Wales with our population more than trebling to 120,000.

MAJOR FEATURES

Major features of Fairfield City include recreation park such as the Western Sydney Regional Park and Chipping Norton Lakes which consists of extensive waterways and recreation facilities. The City has more than 450 parks incorporating a diverse range of recreational settings including children’s play grounds, youth facilities, public art, picnic areas and an extensive network of cycleways, walking trails and sportsgrounds.

The City also has four major businesses and retail centres and a number of shopping centres including a range of cultural cuisines, markets and temples. Not to mention Fairfield Showground which is a host to many large cultural and special large-scale events.

TODAY

Today our City has an estimated population of 187,768 and is one of the most culturally diverse council areas in Australia. More than half of our residents were born overseas, coming from mostly non-English speaking countries. Many new migrants to Sydney choose to live in our multicultural community. The majority of our residents speak a language other than English at home, with the most common being Vietnamese, Assyrian, Arabic, Cantonese and Spanish.

Our current population is relatively young compared to other parts of Sydney with many young families choosing to reside here. However, our fastest growing age group are the 65 years and over. We are now facing an ageing future which will place special demands on our services and facilities into the immediate future. As residents we are very proud of our diversity and see it as our major strength.

THE BIG PICTURE

EXTERNAL INFLUENCES TO OUR CITY

We, like every community around the world, do not exist in isolation – As residents we recognise that Fairfield City is part of a bigger picture. There are things that happen in the wider world which can impact upon our attitudes and perceptions. Some of the most significant factors are set out in the diagram below. These factors can influence our hopes and dreams for the future and can come from the international, federal, state and local levels.

* INFLUENCES

What follows is further information on a chosen few of the major Federal, State and Local influences (considerations, challenges and changes) which are impacting upon our lives and placing substantial pressure on Australia's economy, living standards and government finances.

SOCIAL JUSTICE FRAMEWORK - FEDERAL

Social Justice is about promoting a more socially inclusive society for all people, and in particular for those groups of people most likely to be marginalised or in vulnerable situations, such as Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders, children, people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds, people with disabilities, older people, women and young people.

The Local Government Act 1993 section 402 requires Council to prepare a Community Strategic Plan based on the social justice principles of equity, access, participation and rights. The Department of Local Government (DLG) further defines Social Justice as:

Social Justice Principles

Social justice is based on four interrelated principles of equity, rights, access and participation, to ensure that:

- There is equity in the distribution of resources
- Recognition and promotion of rights
- People have fairer access to the economic resources and services essential to meet their basic needs and to improve their quality of life and
- People have better opportunities for genuine participation and consultation about decisions affecting their lives.

The DLG Social Justice Framework can be accessed at www.dlg.nsw.gov.au

NSW 2021 (STATE PLAN) - STATE

NSW 2021 - A Plan to Make NSW Number One (NSW 2021), released in September 2011, is the NSW Government's 10-year strategic plan to:

- Rebuild the economy
- Return quality services
- Renovate infrastructure
- Strengthen our local environment and communities
- Restore accountability to Government.

The NSW 2021 Plan can be accessed at www.2021.nsw.gov.au

GREEN PAPER - STATE

On 14 July 2012, the NSW Government released A New Planning System for New South Wales – Green Paper, a bold step in the development of a new planning system for the State. The Green Paper outlines major changes in key areas of the planning system, these will result in reforms across a number of areas such as:

- involving the community early in guiding planning decisions that will shape the growth and future of our cities, towns, and neighbourhoods
- placing much more emphasis on preparing good policies upfront to guide growth and development
- reducing red tape and delay for the assessment of development applications for all types of proposals
- ensuring that infrastructure is planned and delivered to support new and existing communities
- promoting a 'can do' culture in the planning system and ensuring that councils and the government are accountable for delivering the results they have committed to
- providing greater access to information about planning policies, planning decisions, and your rights in the planning process.

The Green Paper can be accessed at www.planning.nsw.gov.au

DESTINATION 2036 - LOCAL

The Destination 2036 Action Plan sets out the actions that will be delivered over the coming years to meet the needs of NSW communities and achieve the vision of creating strong communities through partnerships.

The action plan has been prepared by the Implementation Steering Committee and has been finalised following extensive consultation with councils and other stakeholders.

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

ANNUAL REPORT

A key aspect of the Integrated Planning & Reporting Framework is the requirement to report to the community on activities and outcomes that have been undertaken within the Delivery Program and Operational Plan. Every council is required to produce an Annual report which provides a financial summary of income and expenditure over the past financial year as well as an overview of financial performance. The Annual Report also provides information on:

- Performance against key performance indicators for council activities
- Summary of legal proceedings
- Contracts awarded
- Private works & financial assistance
- Details on external bodies, companies and partnerships
- Details on mayoral and councilor fees, expenses and facilities
- Senior staff salaries and remuneration
- Stormwater levies and special rate variations
- Companion animals
- State of the Environment report

ASSET MANAGEMENT PLANNING

Integrated Planning & Reporting requires all councils to produce an Asset Management Strategy and Asset Management Plan which must account and plan for all existing assets under their ownership. The Asset Management Strategy must consist of an overarching Asset Management Policy adopted by the Council as well as identifying assets which are critical to the council's operations. It also identifies asset management capability, projected resource requirements and timeframes. An asset management plan must also be developed which identifies asset service standards and long term projections for asset maintenance, rehabilitation and replacement costs.

DELIVERY PROGRAM

The Delivery Program is a form of social contract between the Council and the community detailing the activities it will undertake during its term in office to achieve the community outcomes identified within the Community Strategic Plan. The Delivery Program is the single point of reference for all activities undertaken by the council during its four year term in office.

LONG TERM FINANCIAL PLAN

The Long Term Financial Plan (LTFP) is one of the three components which make up the Resourcing Strategy that informs the Community Strategic Plan and Delivery Program. The Long Term Financial Plan must cover a minimum period of 10 years and must include:

- Projected income and expenditure, balance sheet and cash flow statement
- Planning assumptions used to develop the LTFP
- Sensitivity analysis – highlights/factors/assumptions most likely to affect the Plan
- Financial modeling for different scenarios
- Methods of monitoring financial performance

OPERATIONAL PLAN

The Operational Plan is a 'sub-plan' of the Delivery Program in that it supports the activities outlined in the Delivery Program. Whereas the Delivery Program takes a four year outlook, the Operational Plan is produced annually and focuses on the specific activities (projects and programs) that a council will undertake within a specific financial year. The Operational Plan also includes a council's operational budget for the financial year.

QUADRUPLE BOTTOM LINE (QBL)

The Community Strategic Plan must adequately address social, environmental, economic and governance considerations. This is known as the quadruple bottom line and aims to ensure that a holistic and balanced view is taken towards issues within a local government area.

RESOURCING STRATEGY

Each council must have a long term Resourcing Strategy to assist in achieving the goals set out in the Community Strategic Plan and the Delivery Program. The Resourcing Strategy consists of three components:

- A Long Term Financial Plan
- An Asset Management Plan
- A Workforce Management Plan

WORKFORCE MANAGEMENT PLAN

Workforce planning is an important part of the new Integrated Planning and Reporting Framework. Council's workforce strategy will form part of the Resourcing Strategy, helping to meet the community's priorities and aspirations, as expressed in the Community Strategic Plan, by having the right people in the right places with the right skills doing the right jobs at the right time. The development of an effective workforce strategy will enable Council to plan its future workforce needs to deliver goals, focus on the medium- and long-term requirements and also provide a framework for dealing with immediate challenges in a consistent way.
