

Review of prices for the Water Administration Ministerial Corporation – DPI Water (formerly the NSW Office of Water) from 1 July 2016

Public hearings

The Independent Pricing and Regulatory Tribunal (IPART) is conducting a review of the maximum prices that DPI Water can charge for the monopoly water management services it delivers on behalf of the Water Administration Ministerial Corporation (WAMC). In this review, IPART will set prices to apply from 1 July 2016.

IPART has released an Issues Paper and has received a pricing proposal from DPI Water and submissions from stakeholders.

IPART is conducting three public hearings to provide an opportunity for stakeholder comment:

- Monday, 16 November 2015 – Tamworth, Quality Hotel Powerhouse
- Monday, 23 November 2015 – Sydney, SMC Conference and Function Centre
- Monday, 30 November 2015 – Griffith, Griffith Ex-Servicemen's Club

Registration opens at 9:00 am, the hearings start at 9:30 am.

The Sydney public hearing will also be webcast.

The agenda for the hearings, copies of DPI Water's pricing proposal and stakeholder submissions and webcast registration information are available from IPART's website: www.ipart.nsw.gov.au
