Other Charges

Charges for network operator services will be no more than the quoted network operator charge plus a retailer administration fee of up to $2.904 (including GST) (including where the service is provided by a third party). Network operator services include (but are not limited to) special meter reads, disconnections, reconnections, high bill field visits and meter testing charges.

Currently, AGL does not charge customers the account establishment fee above but reserves the right to apply this charge in the future. The current charge for account establishment is the special meter reading fee and will be listed on the customer's bill as a special meter reading fee.
