Energy in

Pursuant to section 23 of the National Energy Retail Law, notice is hereby given by AGL Retail Energy Limited ABN 21 074 839 464 of a variation to the gas regulated offer prices applying to small customers (excluding customers on APG transitional prices) on a regulated offer contract with AGL South Australia Pty Limited in the Jemena Gas Networks distribution area. These are also the standing offer rates applying in this area. The variation will take effect from 1 July 2014.

These new rates do not take into account the Federal Government's proposal to remove the carbon tax. Should the legislation removing the carbon tax be passed, we will republish this notice and communicate any further changes to these prices.
