Re: Review of Maxi-Taxi Fare.

We, Jason Crosland and Lilli Fielding were recently informed of Ipart's intention to impede the charges for services provided by Maxi Taxis.

We recently moved all our belongings to our new house using a removalist, unfortunately all our belongings would not fit in the truck so the remaining items were moved using the Maxi Taxi service.

We found the cost incurred matched the service provided, had we used the removalist for the remaining items we would have ~~paid~~ ~~used~~ a great deal more.

We would urge you to reconsider, as the services of Maxi-Taxi are unique and convenient and the cost associated reasonable.

I hereby state that we were in no way coerced into writing this statement.
