

Author name: A. Tucker

Date of submission: Tuesday, 8 May 2018

Submission: "It should be obvious that a fair feed-in tariff for domestic solar should be the same as the wholesale rate for major producers, especially when national environmental targets are included in any evaluation, as well as health savings from reduced pollution.

IPART should be demanding an increase in FIT, not a reduction. This needs to be legislated to ensure a just market for electricity.

A.F Tucker"