

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Tuesday, 26 June 2018

Submission: The retailers have done an appalling job with the metering industry. They are very unhelpful and slow in distributing meters to ASPs. And I have lost a lot of work because i can't get my meters as quick as they give them to the customer. One job took 4 months to get the meters and the retailer tried to take my job from me and give it to another bigger company. There is a lot of bullying happening to us smaller companies