

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Tuesday, 21 January 2020

Submission: The suggested 5% increase is uncalled for and well above the current inflation rates. Public transport needs to remain cost effective for all users, at this rate driving is going to be cheaper.

A number of people use public transport without paying a fare, I would suggest instead to focus on compliance of these people instead of putting up the prices for people who do the right thing.