Submission: As a cash purchaser, I'm not happy with the LACK of SECURITY around my funds being deposited into the correct bank accounts (especially due to human error of entering numerous numbers). That account names are not cross-checked with account numbers to validate that the correct account numbers have been entered into the e-conveyancing system. The LACK of GUARANTEE that my funds will be refunded in full and redirected to the correct account without any penalty to me the purchaser for someone else error.
