Submission: Those in public housing need to pay more rent.

While waiting for public housing I'm expected to pay up to $280 pw in private rent. That's over 50% of my income.

When I get into public housing it drops to 25%. A big difference.

If public housing rents increased to 30%, the extra could go solely to more houses.

Also make AND I MEAN FORCE people with extra spare rooms to relocate. None of this I'VE BEEN HERE FOR HOWEVER LONG. OR THE GRAND KIDS COME TO STAY.

That's selfish, they certainly wouldn't want to pay extra private rent for a "sometimes room".

Private landlords retake possession of houses for "family reasons".

These are my thoughts
