

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Thursday, 26 April 2018

Submission: It has come to my attention that Solo water wishes to release it's effluent around the Catherine hill bay beaches. I am extremely concerned about the effects that this would have on the ecosystem. If the land where the effluent currently gets released is to be developed and they wish to move the effluent elsewhere that is more than okay. However do not undercut the local residence and regular beach goers by damaging the environment that they so highly value.