

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Thursday, 4 October 2018

Submission: The bi-annual service charges are too high for a residential property within the previously known Gosford Council region. They need to be reviewed and lowered to meet other living expenses. What you receive for the service being that price does not produce value for money.