

Author name: B. Titley

Date of submission: Wednesday, 18 April 2018

Submission: As a long time recreational user of Catherine hill bay I am appalled to think of waste water being pumped into where my children and myself swim surf and spend all our recreational time.the beach has already been damaged by the developers due to the daming of the natural creeks now to think that effluent would be released treated or not treateated isn't the excess plastic and rubbish from the building works enough