

Author name: D. Bird

Date of submission: Wednesday, 9 May 2018

Submission: "Hi,

As a solar power provider, I believe that all power being provided to the grid should be paid for by the retail providers at the same rate that they buy power from other power suppliers. I do not know what that wholesale rate is, but when you are considering the rate that solar households receive for their solar power being uploaded to the grid, it should be on par with the industry average for wholesale power from other suppliers. Why treat us any differently?"