

Author name: D. Clarke

Date of submission: Monday, 7 May 2018

Submission: "Solar power from systems paid for from the the private purse should receive a fair price when sold back to the common grid.

Apart from the equity issue, low pricing will increase the number of people effectively going off-grid with batteries, exasperating the gen-tailers' cost recovery problems."