

Author name: D. Eriksen

Date of submission: Friday, 4 May 2018

Submission: I have installed solar panels on 2 consecutive homes firstly to reduce our electricity bills, but also to contribute clean energy to the grid. It is important for householders like me to get a fair price for this input. Even rebating 15 c/KwH still allows the provider a good margin of profit. Lots of micro generators like my rooftop mean the country can function with less coal fired power stations