

Author name: E. Barraclough

Date of submission: Monday, 7 May 2018

Submission: Like many others, I have gone to considerable expense to install solar panels. This has allowed our State to provide a steady supply of power to all. This is gratifying socially but ethically faulty. The power companies are positioning themselves to make a profit at our expense. I thought 11 cents per kWh measly but reducing to 8 cents quite insulting. There is little encouragement to install or expand - essential for our future.