

Author name: E. Harrod

Date of submission: Monday, 7 May 2018

Submission: I have made a commitment to use solar power for my energy needs, I send a lot of excess power back to the grid and I should be fairly compensated for this contribution. At the moment I receive 11.1 c per k/w I believe this is still below what should consumers should be paid for the energy exported. Something close to 15c per k/w is more reasonable.