

Author name: F. Verge

Date of submission: Monday, 23 April 2018

Submission: Surely an environmental impact review should be undertaken before something like this is approved so that the community is aware of all the facts and implications. In any event, please ensure that Solo water's treatment of effluent is of the highest standard and is not downgraded.