

Author name: H. Miller

Date of submission: Tuesday, 1 May 2018

Submission: The electricity supply sector is run by crooks and charlatans helped willingly by a charlatan Federal Government. Under the current government all Public Utilities have become fractionalised, overpriced and incompetent. Telephone, electricity, postage and public transport, have all been privatised to the point where they function for the wealthy investors who control the services but service and costs are out of control. Time to change, boot out the current pack of wasters.