

Author name: J. Hart

Date of submission: Monday, 7 May 2018

Submission: When we put solar on our roof we spent a bit of money. that was ok because we were going to help the planet. we were contributing our energy to the grid and getting paid a decent amount for it. now it is only cents although we are sending much to the grid, this is so unfair and if the price goes down again it would be worthless