SOLAR FEED-IN TARIFFS 2017/18

I wish to applaud your recent recommendation to increase the price on feed-in solar. The electricity companies have the power to pay small rooftop solar generators whatever they want. Their shareholders demand higher returns so inevitably the price on feed-in solar will be as low as they can get away with. Ipart should demand a regulated price to improve the economics of rooftop solar and thus help Australia meet its commitment to reducing greenhouse gases.
