

Author name: J. Hindmarsh

Date of submission: Monday, 7 May 2018

Submission: "I understand IPART is considering reducing the solar feed-in tariff. I find it remarkable how the government (both Federal and State) are continually bleating about the precarious position we are in regarding security of supply yet has no realistic policy to allow industry, consumers and electricity suppliers to plan for the future. Your planned reduction in price effectively penalises solar power producers for rescuing the state from a chaotic and fragile power supply situation."