

Author name: J. Pattinson

Date of submission: Tuesday, 8 May 2018

Submission: With the climate changing and icecaps melting at an alarming rate, we need to encourage solar power production. Many, many households of limited means have put their money into helping address these problems. It is unfair to penalise them for this, especially whilst continuing to subsidise dirty power producers. It is totally illogical. Please let's get our priorities sorted out. We are running out of time.