

Author name: J. Yasmineh

Date of submission: Wednesday, 9 May 2018

Submission: There is no room to lower the solar feed in tariff. If anything it should be increased. Currently we are paying up to 30c/kWh when we are only being paid 11c when the cost to generate electricity is higher for consumers with a rooftop solar PV system than it is for the electricity providers who have economies of scale. You should therefore absolutely not be lowering this tariff, rather you should be increasing it!