

Author name: K. Mason

Date of submission: Friday, 4 May 2018

Submission: "Solar citizens are reducing carbon emissions & saving the state from building new power stations.
We should be able to get a fair price for the electricity we supply.
If we have to use power from the generators we pay on average 29 cents a kilowatt.
What's happened to "a fair go'in our state ?"