

Author name: M. Holmes

Date of submission: Thursday, 26 April 2018

Submission: I find this application abhorrent. The land has been completely desecrated and now to further the blow, they want to now effect the waterways and ocean. Being so close to the National Park and so many delicate ecosystems I can see no viable way that these can proceed